Thank you.

It seems a bit presumptuous of me to write under the above title but I hope our former editor would approve. We all miss Sr. Regina but know that she is enjoying the rewards of a good life, well lived. Now if I can just get over the strange feeling that she is looking over my shoulder saying, “No, Sam, I think you should write that differently,” or, “shouldn’t you have a comma there?”

Christmas and Easter have long passed and we are well into summer as I write this but I would like to share an excerpt from a youth services reflection held Easter morning in Sr. Regina’s apartment. Katie, their leader, and Regina had a custom of doing this Easter morning with the “moms” who live at Angela’s Place.

In Katie’s words, “As we gather in Regina’s home, let us remember that she would want us to embrace and celebrate the resurrection and all its meanings: new life, hope, change and growth. She wants us to remember her, the love she gave us, and the wisdom she taught us. She wants us to move forward in her memory, and to love and support each other and the youth we work with, and to be grateful for the beauty of the world we live in.”

Thank you, Katie and all at Good Shepherd for all the goodness you showed to our sister. You have captured her love of life and of people. So, in that spirit ... we move on.

Sister Anne Marie
