Sister Anne Marie Liston

I am not really sure why we call it an assembly/chapter as it seems that we packed enough work into it to make it a “book” or at least a “novella.” Nevertheless, we filled our vehicles with all the necessary instruments for our work one sunny, Sunday afternoon at the beginning of October and headed for the Miramar Retreat House of the Society of the Divine Word/ Chicago Province located in Duxbury,

Massachusetts. Like ourselves they are an international order of missionaries and several of us have had the opportunity to make retreats there previously. It is situated on a hilltop amid lovely gardens and walking areas, and not too far from the ocean. Unfortunately we had to take these on faith, for we did not have too much time for scenic viewing. When Clunys work, they work!
