The air is still, and there is just a hint of a nippy little breeze to remind us that summer is nearly gone and autumn colors will soon change the view of the trees and flowers outside my editor's window. And what a summer it has been!

We have remembered and rejoiced over the gift that Anne Marie Javouhey was to this world, and to the countless people whose lives she touched. We, as Clunys, proudly bear the name of her followers. Celebrating the accomplishments of our founder and sharing in her mission has caught us up in a whirlwind of effort to accomplish more than we ever dreamed. The little French girl from the fields of Burgundy has formed an army of followers, not laden with weapons and wealth, but alive with the belief that "in Him all things are possible." We have dreamt, and we have prayed; we have built and torn down; we have inaugurated and flourished in lands we didn't know. And yes, we have mourned and sorrowed, as we said goodbye to our dear companions.

As we come to the end of another summer, our celebrations and achievements as a missionary congregation give us hope and courage for the future. Some things didn't go the way we hoped, but what are our paucity little ideas compared to the challenge before us? Yet in Him and through Him, and with Him, we will press on, however few, however limited. And we will continue to follow in the footsteps of Anne Marie Javouhey.

Sister Anne Marie
